

To Our Valued Clients,

We are facing an unprecedented time in our country right now. And as such, we are facing one in our company as well. We are all struggling with stores being out of stock and trying to provide for our families. I want to thank each and every one of you for sticking with us throughout this uncertain time. Our staff is transitioning smoothly, and we look forward to continuing to help your businesses get the recognition they deserve.

We are all one ReviewTube family, and we will stick together through this, no matter how long it lasts. Unfortunately, right now, that remains open-ended, but we will continue to work with each and every one of you to make sure you have what you need to do your jobs successfully.

Our company goals remain the same: to provide you, our clients, with the most relevant product lines to serve your business and your customers. Our staff remains dedicated to you all, and we have put things in place to ensure that our work doesn't skip a beat.

We will continue to stay in close communication with you throughout this time, and we are always here whenever you need us. Once again, thank you all for your continued loyalty to ReviewTube. We love our clients and we know we can help turn this around. Stick together, help each other, and we will all get through this together.

Stay Positive,

Robert J. Bartosiewicz
